

CHASE SANBORN

Trumpet / Flugelhorn

Chase Sanborn is originally from the NY area, and is an alumnus of the Berklee College of Music in Boston. Currently based in Canada, Chase is a veteran session musician and a mainstay of the bustling music scene in Toronto. He has toured or performed with Ray Charles, Aretha Franklin, Diana Krall and many other Jazz and Pop artists.

His recordings are mainstays on the CBC, JAZZ.FM91, and on radio world-wide. The late Toronto Star Jazz critic, Geoff Chapman, wrote that Chase's recordings are "illuminated by sublime statements and moments of aching poignancy. Creativity is front and center here."

A dedicated and celebrated music educator, Chase is a member of the Jazz faculty at the University of Toronto, and travels frequently to appear as clinician and guest artist. His instructional books, CDs and DVDs have garnered universal praise for their insightful and entertaining approach to playing and teaching music. Chase Sanborn is a Yamaha Artist.
